SyncML Initiative Ltd. IPR Declarations

Attention is called to the possibility that implementation of a SyncML Initiative Specification may require use of subject matter covered by patent rights. By publication of these Specifications, no position is taken with respect to the existence or validity of any patent rights in connection therewith. The SyncML Initiative is not responsible for identifying patents having necessary claims for which a license may be required to implement a SyncML Initiative specification or for conducting inquiries into the legal validity or scope of those patents that are brought to its attention.

In accordance with the SyncML Initiative IPR Policy, the Initiative shall publish information regarding any NECESSARY CLAIMS (as defined in Section 1 (Definitions) of the SyncML Initiative Intellectual Property Agreement) of which the Initiative becomes aware. The following NECESSARY CLAIMS have been brought to the attention of SyncML:
